

I am concerned about FCC Chairman Michael Powell's proposal regarding the repeal or relaxing of the ownership rules that keep the largest media conglomerates from growing even larger. The public needs access to a diversity of opinions and competition among the various outlets. I urge you to drop any further lessening of current rules.